

Corporate/Transactional Attorney at Waldrep Wall Babcock & Bailey PLLC

Our corporate law team is searching for an attorney with 6+ years of corporate and transactional experience, excellent academic credentials, and outstanding communication skills to join our team. Commercial real estate experience is helpful but not required. Candidate would need to be admitted to practice in North Carolina, or eligible to become admitted quickly.

Waldrep Wall Babcock & Bailey PLLC is a business law firm focused on bankruptcy, commercial transactions, healthcare, commercial real estate, litigation and mediation. Through our highly experienced attorneys, we serve clients with efficiency and expertise. Our firm employs a different approach – one that is client-centric and encourages a collaborative team culture that is multidisciplinary. We focus on offering solutions to our clients, which involves selecting the right attorneys in our firm to guide their specific business and legal needs. We offer a unique blend of sophisticated work within a collegial, team-oriented environment, without the bureaucracy and layers associated with larger firms. We value our work environment, those with whom we work and the communities in which we work.
